

Discussion Questions

January 19, 2025

1. Read Exodus 33:7–11; Daniel 6:10–11; Psalm 63:6, 55:17, Luke 11:1, Acts 3:1, 10:9
2. What did you learn new from these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
3. What do you learn about God from these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
4. What will you do differently because of these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
5. Do you have a place that is special to you? Why is that place special?
6. Read Matthew 6:6 again. The context of these words is warning us to avoid drawing attention to ourselves through acts of prayer. Yet we have many examples of people praying in specific places to meet with God regularly.
7. What are your thoughts on creating a “place of prayer?”
8. Have you seen this modeled by anyone personally? What is their testimony/experience?
9. What is your primary takeaway from this week’s teaching?
10. What are you going to do this week to put into action that takeaway?

Discussion Questions

January 19, 2025

1. Read Exodus 33:7–11; Daniel 6:10–11; Psalm 63:6, 55:17, Luke 11:1, Acts 3:1, 10:9
2. What did you learn new from these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
3. What do you learn about God from these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
4. What will you do differently because of these texts or from the message shared on Sunday?
5. Do you have a place that is special to you? Why is that place special?
6. Read Matthew 6:6 again. The context of these words is warning us to avoid drawing attention to ourselves through acts of prayer. Yet we have many examples of people praying in specific places to meet with God regularly.
7. What are your thoughts on creating a “place of prayer?”
8. Have you seen this modeled by anyone personally? What is their testimony/experience?
9. What is your primary takeaway from this week’s teaching?
10. What are you going to do this week to put into action that takeaway?