

Discussion Questions

February 2, 2025

1. On Sunday we read 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 & Ephesians 4:15-16. Read those again. Write down any observations you think the Paul was trying to convey.
2. Read Romans 12:4-5. What does this verse reinforce or add to the understand of the Church as a Body?
3. What do the above passages reveal about God?
4. What do the above passages reveal about us?
5. Does the picture of the church as a body change or impact your understanding or thoughts about the church? Why or Why not?
6. 1 Corinthians 12:26 speaks of suffering. Is there someone you know in the body who is hurting? How can you come alongside that body member to care for them?
7. Paul mentions God's desire for no division in the body? Is there someone that you need to reconcile with?
8. What is some practical way you can give honor to another part of the body this week?

Discussion Questions

February 2, 2025

1. On Sunday we read 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 & Ephesians 4:15-16. Read those again. Write down any observations you think the Paul was trying to convey.
2. Read Romans 12:4-5. What does this verse reinforce or add to the understand of the Church as a Body?
3. What do the above passages reveal about God?
4. What do the above passages reveal about us?
5. Does the picture of the church as a body change or impact your understanding or thoughts about the church? Why or Why not?
6. 1 Corinthians 12:26 speaks of suffering. Is there someone you know in the body who is hurting? How can you come alongside that body member to care for them?
7. Paul mentions God's desire for no division in the body? Is there someone that you need to reconcile with?
8. What is some practical way you can give honor to another part of the body this week?