

Discussion Questions

June 9th 2024

1. What was the most meaningful teaching from the message you learned? Why?
2. Was there a time when you experienced or witnessed the actions of others in a way that was disingenuous or for selfish motives? How does one distinguish “pure” motives? How do we guard ourselves from being “impure”?
3. Paul refers to the story of Isaac and Ishmael to explain the promise of God. How does Isaac's birth as the child of promise relate to the concept of being children of the promise in the new covenant?
4. Galatians 4:28 states, "Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise." How does identifying as children of promise impact the way we view our faith and relationship with God?
5. Have you ever tried to take matters into your “own hands” and get ahead of God? Reflect on that situation. Why is it hard to wait on God?
6. Have you ever been in an escape room? They are fun as the challenge is to make it out in time with the clues present. It wouldn't be fun if you could never escape. Is there something that keeps you locked up from experiencing “Freedom in Christ?”

Discussion Questions

June 9th 2024

1. What was the most meaningful teaching from the message you learned? Why?
2. Was there a time when you experienced or witnessed the actions of others in a way that was disingenuous or for selfish motives? How does one distinguish “pure” motives? How do we guard ourselves from being “impure”?
3. Paul refers to the story of Isaac and Ishmael to explain the promise of God. How does Isaac's birth as the child of promise relate to the concept of being children of the promise in the new covenant?
4. Galatians 4:28 states, "Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise." How does identifying as children of promise impact the way we view our faith and relationship with God?
5. Have you ever tried to take matters into your “own hands” and get ahead of God? Reflect on that situation. Why is it hard to wait on God?
6. Have you ever been in an escape room? They are fun as the challenge is to make it out in time with the clues present. It wouldn't be fun if you could never escape. Is there something that keeps you locked up from experiencing “Freedom in Christ?”