

Discussion Questions

July 28th 2024

1. What was the most meaningful teaching from the message you learned? Why?
2. What's your 1st feeling when learn that the teaching time is centered around finances and giving in the local church?
3. In 1 Chronicles, David and the people gave to a specific purpose. Do you find it easier to give towards a physical building project as opposed to ongoing financial needs of ministry? Why or Why not?
4. Does it make a difference to know that you are not alone in your giving and that others are giving? Why or Why not?
5. David challenged the people to give. How does being challenged to give make a difference for you?
6. Does being challenged to give invoke a positive or negative response? Why do you think it invokes that response?
7. 1 Chronicles records that the people "rejoiced" because of the giving that took place. Speak honestly, is rejoicing the emotion that you most readily equate with giving?
8. If rejoicing isn't the response to our giving, what would need to change in order to experience "rejoicing" while giving?
9. Sometimes giving is done out of habit, guilt, or a sense of obligation. Your challenge today is to search for answers to any questions you have to change that.

Discussion Questions

July 28th 2024

1. What was the most meaningful teaching from the message you learned? Why?
2. What's your 1st feeling when learn that the teaching time is centered around finances and giving in the local church?
3. In 1 Chronicles, David and the people gave to a specific purpose. Do you find it easier to give towards a physical building project as opposed to ongoing financial needs of ministry? Why or Why not?
4. Does it make a difference to know that you are not alone in your giving and that others are giving? Why or Why not?
5. David challenged the people to give. How does being challenged to give make a difference for you?
6. Does being challenged to give invoke a positive or negative response? Why do you think it invokes that response?
7. 1 Chronicles records that the people "rejoiced" because of the giving that took place. Speak honestly, is rejoicing the emotion that you most readily equate with giving?
8. If rejoicing isn't the response to our giving, what would need to change in order to experience "rejoicing" while giving?
9. Sometimes giving is done out of habit, guilt, or a sense of obligation. Your challenge today is to search for answers to any questions you have to change that.